- Fee: There is no admission fee.
- Accommodation: Single and double rooms will be provided free of charge at the venue of the conference for a maximum of 200 participants. All meals included.
Early registration for the conference is strongly recommended
- Language: The conference language is English. On a voluntary base we will try to organise interpretation in small circles according to the needs of the participants, but don't expect professional interpretation.
- Travel: Please apply for local funding of your travelling expenses. If you need more detailed information to ask for funding in your own country, contact the secretariat.
You may need to have a visa to travel into Denmark. Please mail us for sending you an official invitation to the conference.
To a limited extent we are able to refund travelling expenses (including visa and WNUSP membership fee) for participants from developing countries and countries in transition.
- Venue: Vejle College of Sports (Vejle Idrætshøjskole) has many sports facilities, and an outdoor swimming pool. The college is surrounded by a small forest and close to the beach. There are plenty of large and small meeting rooms (equipped with computers and internet connection), copying facilities, and restrooms.

How to get to Vejle College of Sports (Vejle Idrætshøjskole):

- Via Copenhagen airport – trains for Vejle leaves once every hour. The trip is about two hours.
- Via Billund airport – please let us know, we will see to the transport from Billund to Vejle.
- By international train directly to Vejle.
- From the railway station to the venue of the conference: short distance by bus or taxi – we will send you detailed information after your registration. A guide will meet you at the station.

Please note the following:

- Since the accommodation facilities for the conference are limited the organising committee reserve the right to prioritise amongst persons applying for participation.
 - First: priority will be to maximise the number of countries represented at the conference
 - Second: priority will be given to full members, associate members and individual members of WNUSP and/or ENUSP.
- Only delegates representing voting member organisations of WNUSP and ENUSP have the right to vote at the announced general assemblies of the two NGO's.

The conference is organised by:

*Anders Jensen, Helge Preben Sørensen, Erik Olsen, Maths Jespersen, Maria Holbæk; LAP Denmark
Gábor Gombos, Peter Lehmann, Heleen van der Leest, Mary Nettle, Piotr Iwaneyko; ENUSP
Sylvia Caras, Iris Hölling, Karl Bach Jensen and Eva Rasmussen; WNUSP*

NETWORKING FOR OUR HUMAN RIGHTS AND DIGNITY

Workshops:

Networking:

1. Which ethical ground rules do we want to have in the self-help movement? Facilitator: Peter Lehmann, Germany

E-mail: admin@wnusp.org

WNUSP:

- Is an international organization of users and survivors of psychiatry
- Advocates for human rights of users and survivors
- Promotes the user/survivor movement in every nation around the globe
- Speaks internationally for users and survivors

WNUSP history:

WNUSP grew out of users' and survivors' demands for recognition and representation. Originally meeting at the biannual World Federation for Mental Health conferences, the network is now a permanent international organization.

- 1991: Network began as World Federation of Psychiatric Users (WFPU) at the WFMH conference in Mexico.
- 1997: Name changed to WNUSP.
- 1999: Initial core funding from International Disability Foundation to plan international meeting in Santiago, Chile.
- 2000: Secretariat established in Odense, Denmark.
- 2001: First General Assembly in Vancouver — 34 groups from 12 countries; adoption of WNUSP Statutes and election of WNUSP board.

WNUSP action plan 2001 – 2004:

- Promote human rights
- Support national and international human rights efforts
- Develop national & international user/survivor networks
- Lobby for international legal recognition and implementation of user/survivor rights with the UN and other international organizations
- Promote organization in countries where user/survivor network is underdeveloped
- Promote the WNUSP as the international voice of users & survivors
- Develop the network's long-term funding strategy
- Publish regular WNUSP newsletter and website
- Build the WNUSP as an international NGO
- Organize the next General Assembly

WNUSP board members:

- Judi Chamberlin, co-chair, USA
- Iris Hölling, co-chair, Germany
- Karl Bach Jensen, co-chair, Denmark
- Tina Minkowitz, co-opted, USA
- Eva Rasmussen, secretary, Denmark
- Moosa Salie, South Africa
- Mari Yamamoto, Japan
- Bhargavi Davar, India
- Mary O'Hagan, co-opted, New Zealand
- Sylvia Caras, consultant, USA

NETWORKING FOR OUR HUMAN RIGHTS AND DIGNITY

WNUSP definitions:

- A user or survivor of psychiatry is self-defined as a person who has experienced madness and/or mental health problems and/or has used or survived psychiatry/mental health services.
- A user/survivor of psychiatry organisation is defined as an organisation run entirely by users or survivors, or where the majority of members and people in a governance role are users or survivors.

WNUSP membership:

- Full membership of WNUSP is open to all democratically run and legally constituted national user/survivor organisations with compatible purpose and aims to WNUSP.
- One or more national user/survivor organisations from a country may become a full member.
- In countries where there are no national user/survivor organisations, or where a national organisation exists but is not a member of WNUSP, local organisations with compatible aims to WNUSP may become full members – until a national organisation from their country becomes a full member of WNUSP.
- Full members are entitled to: subscription of WNUSP publications, select the voting delegates for General Assembly, speak at General Assemblies, and nominate people for election to the board.
- Associate membership is open to: All individual users and survivors around the world, and all local and international user/survivor organisations with compatible purpose and aims to WNUSP.
- Associate members are entitled to: subscription of WNUSP publications, speak at General Assemblies, and nominate people for election to the board.

We recommend all participating organisations and individuals to become members of WNUSP.

You can apply for WNUSP membership via the web site: www.wnusp.org or by filling out the application form in this pamphlet.

Participants from developing countries and countries in transition can apply for having their WNUSP membership fee sponsored by the conference.

The European Network of (ex-)Users and Survivors of Psychiatry (ENUSP)

- Is the only grassroots umbrella organisation on a European level that unifies national organisations of (ex-)users & survivors of psychiatry across the continent to provide a direct representation of people who are or have been on the receiving end of psychiatric services.
- Is against any unilateral approach to, and stigmatisation of mental and emotional distress, madness, human suffering and unconventional behaviour.
- Is independent from commercial influences.

ENUSP Aims:

- ENUSP aims to promote and improve the human rights of (ex-)users & survivors of psychiatry; to fight against abuse and coercion and for alternatives to psychiatry, controlled by (ex-)users & survivors of psychiatry.
- ENUSP attempts to influence policy at a European level and maintains contacts with other international organisations active in the mental health field.
- ENUSP needs your support. Please contact the board and the secretary.

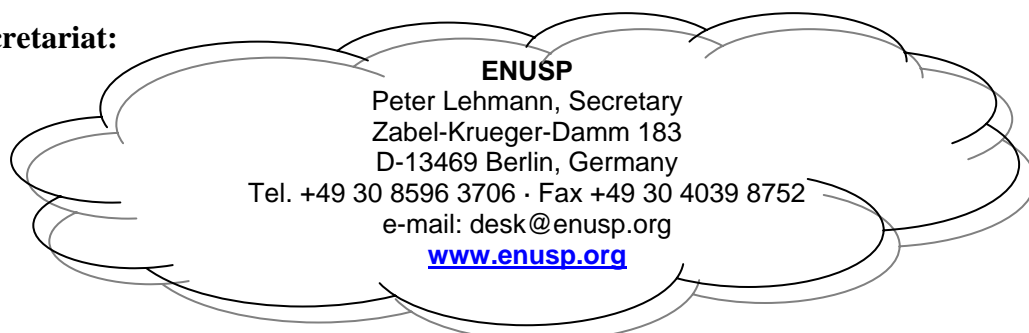

ENUSP History:

The history of ENUSP goes back to 1990. Since then the Network has organised four European conferences. In 1998 the Network received legal recognition and since then it has been a federation of European associations of (ex-)users & survivors of psychiatry. In 2004 ENUSP has members in 34 European countries.

ENUSP Board (elected in 1999):

Gábor Gombos, Hungary (Chair) · Beverley Mills, UK (Deputy-Chair – no longer active) · Marinka Kapelj, Slovenia (Interim Deputy-Chair) · Board Members: Gloria Brown (deceased in 2003) · Piotr Iwaneyko, Poland · Peter Lehmann, Germany · Virpi Vesterinen, Finland · Adopted Board Members: Claude Finkelstein, France · Mary Nettle, UK · Heleen Van der Leest (Netherlands)
